Key Risks. Continued

Derivative counterparty risk: The Fund can use over the counter (OTC) derivatives, these are derivatives not traded openly on an exchange and instead are traded privately directly between a buyer and seller, who are referred to as counterparties. These derivatives are used to reduce the impact of holding investments in other currencies (hedging). There is a risk that, one of the counterparties will not be able to pay the money owed to the Fund in the course of carrying out an OTC derivatives trade. In this event your return could be reduced.

Credit risk: The Fund can invest directly in bonds, these carry the risk that the company, country or other entity issuing the bond will be unable to make the interest or any other payments it has committed to. This risk is higher for lower quality, non-investment grade and unrated bonds. However, these bonds typically provide a greater return than lower risk bonds.

Emerging market risk: The Fund can be exposed to emerging markets which Compared to more established economies, investments in emerging markets may be subject to greater volatility. Under certain market conditions assets may be difficult to sell.

Foreign-exchange risk: When investments are made in overseas securities, movements in exchange rates may have an effect on the value of that investment.

Operational risk: The Fund is exposed to the risk of bankruptcy of those that act on behalf of the Fund or hold assets on behalf of the Fund. Investors should also note that compensation under the UK Financial Services Compensation Scheme and the Irish Investor Compensation Scheme will also not be available in relation to the Fund.
